

Fun in Salt Lake City

While you're in Salt Lake City, plan to see some of the wonderful sites and surrounding areas.

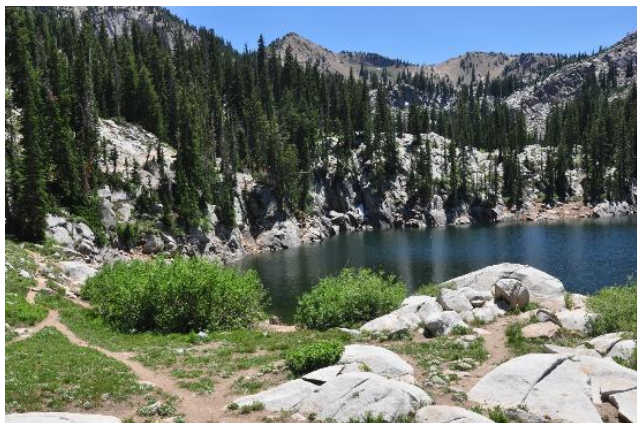

Red Butte Garden

Near the conference hotel. Get a great view of the entire valley as you go for a hike or run on the Bonneville Shoreline Trail. Or, visit Red Butte Garden and the Natural History Museum of Utah (both are just up the street), or the Hogle Zoo.

Downtown. Visit Temple Square and hear the Mormon Tabernacle Choir rehearsals on Thursday evening or a live broadcast if you're here on Sunday morning. Stop by the beautiful City Library, hear the Utah Symphony play Raiders of the Lost Ark, or rent a Green Bike and check out the area on two wheels!

Big Cottonwood Canyon

In the canyons. The canyons adjacent to the Salt Lake Valley provide a host of outdoor activities. Each canyon is an alpine oasis offering mountain biking, hiking, fishing, tram or chair lift rides, and top-notch dining in a spectacular setting.

Great Salt Lake

Coming for the weekend? Go for a hike or ride in or around Salt Lake (the largest salt water lake in the Western Hemisphere), or choose from many hikes elsewhere in Utah. You're a just short drive from Park City, Deer Valley, and Snowbird resorts. If you have the time, you're only a few hours from amazing national parks - Arches, Capitol Reef, and Canyonlands. And if you're bringing the family for Labor Day weekend, don't miss the amazing Sheep Dog Championship in nearby Heber Valley

Where to find more information. Check out Visit Salt Lake or Utah.com for information on attractions, events, restaurants, and transportation.
